

Western Linkages produced a poster size map of the western metro (South Australian Government planning region) region for service providers. Originally produced by the Transport Workgroup, it was revised and reprinted in 2007. The map indicates regional and local government boundaries. It has been distributed through the Western Linkages Steering Committee and Workgroups.

